

Weld County Sheriff's Office - Volunteer Information & Application

It is in the mutual interest of the Weld County Sheriff's Office and citizens of Weld County to form a volunteer group. Citizens who volunteer at the Weld County Sheriff's Office are instrumental in improving the quality of life in their community. Volunteers work as a team with the Sheriff's Office to provide a host of neighborhood services.

As a volunteer, you help the Sheriff's office decentralize law enforcement and take it out into the community where it is most needed. By giving your time to the Sheriff's office, you also ease the burden on deputies working in the field, allowing them to devote more time to fighting serious crime issues. By working together to identify problems and by forming partnerships based upon common goals and complementary strategies, law enforcement officials and community members can deal more effectively and efficiently with crime than they could by working separately.

There are really no specific qualifications to become a Volunteer with the Weld County Sheriff's Office. But, you should have:

- Good moral standards and a desire to take an active role in improving the quality of life in their community
- A valid Colorado driver's license and a good driving record (depending upon the specific duties assigned)
- Satisfactory completion of a background check

If you meet the qualifications and are enthusiastic about volunteering your time, no other skills are required, but we do need specific skills in some situations. You will be asked to list those skills on the application. This will help us know what you enjoy doing.

You work as much as you can. Even a little bit of your time is greatly appreciated. We have developed a credit system that translates into approximately 20 hours per month, which is requested to stay active in the Volunteer Program. You will be asked which days of the week you are available to volunteer your time.

There are many ways to get involved with the Volunteer Program, listed here is a brief description of each area:

- Volunteer (Volunteer Support Group)
 - As a Volunteer, you are not POST Certified, but still perform many duties
- Reserve (Certified Reserve Officer)
 - A Reserve Officer is Colorado State POST Certified with more opportunities to perform patrol or other duties that require a Peace Officer Certification. You must receive an Appointment once you are accepted as a Reserve Officer.
- Posse (Mounted Sheriff's Posse)
 - You do not need to be POST Certified to be a Mounted Sheriff's Posse member, but we request that you have access or own a horse, but it is not a requirement.
